DETAILED ACTION

This office action is responsive to responsive to RCE filed on 12/20/2006

Claims 1-25, and 27 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Regarding claim 13-18, the specification as originally filed doesn't give any detail or any example of a computer readable medium having instructions, and the corresponding processing system that executes the instructions for performing the recited steps as indicated in claims 13-18.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 13-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter, because the essence of the claimed subject matter is "the computer readable medium having instructions" which is a descriptive material per se (non-statutory). Furthermore, the computer readable medium is not specified as being encoded with the instructions. The instructions are neither computer components nor statutory processes, such instructions do not define any structural and functional interrelationships between the "computer readable medium" and the claimed processing system.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks , filed on 12/20/2006, with respect to claims 1-25, and 27 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The prior art rejection of these claims has been withdrawn.

However, after a further review of the computer readable medium of claims 13-18 in light of the specification, Examiner found no support for such medium. Thus a new rejection under 35 USC § 112 is provided.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-12, 19-25, and 27 allowed.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: See form PTO-892..
